One of East Anglia's lesser known destinations, Kings Lynn is a place full of history.

Fine old merchants' houses stretch down to the river between cobbled lanes and the elegant Custom House overlooks the harbour. Or why not take a trip on the King's Lynn ferry to see the King's Lynn quayside and town from the banks of West Lynn.

The popular town centre boasts an extensive pedestrianised shopping area with the modern Vancouver Quarter sitting alongside the traditional shopping areas of the town and being complemented by the regular markets in its two historic market places.

Norwich

Recently voted one of the top 10 shopping destinations in the UK, this bustling modern city combines a huge array of shops and restaurants, with a wealth of historical landmarks. The cathedral, castle keep and colourful market are complimented by the modern architecture of The Forum, and the narrow pedestrianised streets of The Lanes with their trendy coffee shops and fashionable boutiques.

And if it's food and drink you're looking for, Norwich will never disappoint! The city boasts an enviable selection of independent free houses alongside trendy wine bars.

Famed for its 'foodie' scene, there's a choice of eating places that is second to none, with new ones appearing all of the time.

Swaffham

One of the most famous market towns in Norfolk, Swaffham boasts a wealth of attractive Georgian buildings facing onto the market square with its striking Butter Cross and popular Saturday market...there's still an auction and poultry market as well.

An easy town to wander around, there is a great selection of independent cafes and restaurants.

Wisbech

Wisbech, the Capital of the Fens, is the perfect place for a day out, renowned for its' elegant Georgian architecture – you'll find the best examples along the Brinks or around the Crescent.

Explore Peckover House on North Brink or visit Elgoid's Brewery – one of the first Georgian breweries to be built outside London and remaining almost unchanged for more than 200 years. You can sample some of their award winning real ales on a brewery tour or in one of the many Elgoid's pubs in town.
